Centennial's Charity Tournament Returns for 12th Year

Centennial Collegiate is hosting the 12th Annual C4: Centennial Charger Charity Classic senior boys' basketball tournament on December 9 and 10, 2022.

All profits from the tournament will go towards two charitable initiatives: the Jim Pattison Children's Hospital Foundation (JPCHF) and the high school's ACTS of Kindness projects. Since it began, the tournament has raised over $30,000 for the JPCHF.

Eight high schools will be participating in the tournament, including Centennial Collegiate, Evan Hardy Collegiate, Marion M. Graham Collegiate, Bedford Road Collegiate, North Battleford Comprehensive, St. Mary High School (Prince Albert), A.E. Peacock Collegiate (Moose Jaw) and Yorkton Regional.

Friday is $5-Fan Day at the tournament and visitors are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item for donation. There will also be a silver collection at the door. On Saturday, day passes are $10 per person or $5 per game.

Media are invited to attend tip-off of the Centennial Chargers' first game:

Friday, December 9*
1:15 p.m.
Centennial Collegiate Gym
160 Nelson Road

The senior girls' team will tip-off the showcase game at 9:30 a.m.*
