Centennial Collegiate Charity Basketball Tournament Returns

Centennial Collegiate is hosting the 13th annual C4 – Centennial Charger Charity Classic senior boys' basketball tournament on December 8 and 9.

All profits from the tournament will go towards two charitable initiatives: the Jim Pattison Children's Hospital Foundation (JPCHF) and Centennial Collegiate's ACTS of Kindness projects. Since it began, the tournament has raised more than $30,000 for the JPCHF.

There will be eight high schools from around Saskatchewan participating, including Centennial Collegiate, Evan Hardy Collegiate, Marion M. Graham Collegiate, Bedford Road Collegiate, North Battleford Comprehensive, St. Mary High School (Prince Albert), A.E. Peacock Collegiate (Moose Jaw) and Yorkton Regional.

Friday is $5-Fan Day at the tournament with visitors encouraged to bring a non-perishable food item for donation. There will also be a silver collection at the door. On Saturday, day passes are $10 per person or $5 per game.

Media are invited to attend tip-off at the Centennial Chargers' first game:

Friday, December 8
1:15 p.m.
Centennial Collegiate Gym
160 Nelson Road
Saskatoon

Our Seniors Girls also play a tip-off showcase game on Friday, December 8 at 9:30 a.m.
