Saskatoon Public Schools flag to be lowered in recognition of National Day for Truth & Reconciliation

For immediate release: September 29, 2026 – 8:15 a.m.

Flags at all Saskatoon Public Schools will be lowered at the end of the school day today in recognition of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on Sept. 30. Flags will be raised again at the start of the school day on Thursday, Oct. 1.

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation honours survivors of residential schools, remembers the children who never returned home, and recognizes the ongoing impacts of the residential school system. It is also an opportunity to reflect on our shared responsibility to advance truth and reconciliation.

September 30 is also Orange Shirt Day. Wearing orange is a visible act of remembrance and a way to honour residential school survivors and their families. As Saskatoon Public Schools' offices and schools are closed on Sept. 30, students and staff have been invited to wear orange today.

Throughout the school year, students and staff engage in learning about the history and ongoing impacts of residential schools, Treaties, Indigenous cultures and reconciliation. Employees and families have also been invited to participate in National Day for Truth and Reconciliation activities taking place throughout Saskatoon on Sept. 30.
