Lowering flags in recognition of Indigenous Veterans Day, Remembrance Day

For immediate release: November 6, 2026 – 8:15 a.m.

Saskatoon Public Schools will lower flags to half-mast in recognition of National Indigenous Veterans Day (Nov. 8) and Remembrance Day (Nov. 11). Flags will be lowered at Saskatoon Public schools at the end of the school day today (Nov. 6) and returned to full-mast the morning of Nov. 12.

National Indigenous Veterans Day specifically recognizes and honours the contributions, experiences, and sacrifices of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit veterans, whose service has historically been overlooked or underrecognized. This day complements Remembrance Day, which honours all those who have served and sacrificed in times of war, conflict, and peace.

The lowering of the flags is intended to recognize these important days and honour those who have served.
