Saskatoon Public Schools lowering flags in honour of National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

For immediate release: September 29, 2025 – 9:00 a.m.

Saskatoon Public Schools (SPS) will be lowering its flags in honour of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The flags will be lowered to half-mast on Monday afternoon (Sept. 29) and remain lowered until Wednesday morning (Oct. 1).

SPS students and staff have been invited to wear orange shirts to school/work today in recognition of National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day. All our schools will be closed on Sept. 30 so that staff, students, and families may attend reconciliation events in the city.
